

Food for Thought

Scripture: Ephesians 2: 4-10

Questions to Reflect On:

1. Share about someone who inspired you with their life of service?
2. What are the barriers, that you or others have identified in the past, that have kept you from serving in the past? How can you work this year to overcome some of those barriers?
3. Are there areas of service where you feel like God is calling you to invest some of your life right now?

Due to rising Covid infection rates we are following the recommendation of County Public Health Officials to mandate mask wearing indoors on the FUMCCV Campus. We have masks available if you do not have one and we are still live-streaming all of our worship services if you would feel more comfortable staying home and not wearing a mask.

Rev. Nicole Reilley, FUMCCV Preacher in Residence

In staffing conversations last year the Pastor Parish Relations Committee discussed the idea of bringing an Associate Pastor on staff in order to spread the work of the Pastor amongst two offices. Ultimately, finances prevented us from doing this but we still took some steps to ease the pastoral load for Pastor Brian.

We welcome The Rev. Nicole Reilley into a one year position we are calling Preacher in Residence. In this position, as an Elder in the UMC, Rev. Nicole will be preaching and presiding in worship seven times in this appointment year. Rev. Nicole will be working with Pastor Brian to present different ideas and perspectives into each sermon series ... it is sort of like the Gospels, because there are four of them we can have a broader sense of God and faith. With two Elders sharing the preaching this gives our church more perspectives and the possibility of broader understandings and deeper faith. Rev. Reilley comes with a wealth of experience having served local churches and at the conference level for the past 30 years, most recently as Pastor of Valencia UMC, a church that is very much like FUMCCV in terms of size, staffing and ministry focus. Rev. Reilley stepped out of parish ministry this past June in order to focus full time on coaching and consulting around clergy wellness, congregational vitality and spiritual growth. Rev. Reilley and Pastor Brian have been close friends and trusted colleagues for the past 20 years and we are excited for this unique opportunity to grow with and learn from Rev. Reilley.
